MCNC & NORTH CAROLINA TELEHEALTH NETWORK ASSOCIATION

BOOTH #75

As behavioral health and primary care become integrated, the need to track and share patient history becomes increasingly important. This means that behavioral health organizations must adopt electronic health records and interconnect with other healthcare providers if they are to fully participate in these watershed changes. Central to the effective adoption of digital technologies is the broadband/internet connection among providers. We will lead a practical, laymen's discussion about the things to keep in mind as you choose or evaluate your network provider to give you a leg up as your adopt digital solutions.

Paradigm has national contracts with several commercial payors, including United Healthcare. Paradigm also has regional contracts, including BCBS-NC. Paradigm participates in Medicare and various state Medicaid programs. Paradigm follows the Model Guidance for Clinical Laboratory Compliance. Paradigm uses a state of the art LC-MS/MS presumptive mass spectrometry screen that tests for more than 50 specific drugs. The Benchmark Presumptive LC-MS/MS test offers the clinician much greater insight into a patient's recent drug utilization than does immunoassay (chemistry analyzer) testing. Turnaround time for Benchmark LC-MS/MS presumptive results is 24-48 hours from the laboratory's receipt of the specimen. Paradigm's Benchmark LC-MS/MS Presumptive Test minimizes the need for expensive definitive (confirmation) testing, and will specifically reduce the need for Tier 2 through 4 definitive test profiles, which are often found by payers to be medically unnecessary and unreasonable.
